THE P R E F A C E.

I*T was a usual Saying of the great Lord Verulam, That not one Man of a Thousand died a natural Death; and that most Diseases had their Rise and Origin from Intemperance. Therefore,*

*Unerring Nature learn to follow close,
For quantum sufficit is her just Dose;
Sufficient, clogs no Wheels and tires no Horse,
Yet briskly drives the Blood around the Course;
And hourly adds unto its Wastes, Supplies,
In due Proportion to what's spent and dies;
Whilst surfeiting corrupts the purple Gore,
And bankrupts Nature of her long-liv'd Store:
And thus the Soul is from the Body tore before its Time.*————

Which, by a temperate Life, in a clean Cell,
Might full a hundred years with comfort dwell,
And drop, when ripe, as Nuts do slip the Shell.

Trust not to Constitution, 'twill decay,
And twisted Strength, its Fibres wear away;
Asclose-wove Garments of a strong-spun Thread
The Woof frets out and tears away the Web:
So Soul and Body tho' ne'er so well conjoin'd,
The longer that they wear the more they grind,
Then the crakt Organ must impair the Mind.
All finite Things tend to their own undoing,
But Man alone's industrious to his Ruin;
For what with Riot, Delicates, and Wine,
Turns Pioneer, himself to undermine.
Besides the hidden Snares laid in our way,
The sudden Deaths we hear of every Day,
The smoothest Paths have unseen Ambuscades,
And Insecurity, Security invades;
For no Man knows what's the next Hour's Event,
Man lives as he does die, by Accident.
How soft is Flesh, how brittle is a Bone!
Time eats up Steel, and Monuments of Stone,
And from his Teeth art thou exempt alone?
What Warrant hast thou that thy Body's proof
Against the Anguish of an aching Tooth?
How soon's a Fever rous'd by acute Pains?
The smallest Ails have all their Partizans;
And

And in intestine Wars they may divide,
And Life's Deserters list on the wrong side.
Diseases, like true Blood-hounds, seize their Dam,
And prey upon the Carkass whence they sprang.
Be always on thy Guard, watchful and wise,
Lest Death should take thee napping by Sur(prize.

Drunkenness and Gluttony steal Men off silently and singulatin, whereas Sword and Pestilence do it by the Lump; but then
Death makes a Halt, and comes to a Cessation of Arms, but the other knows no Stop nor Intermission, but perpetually jogs on and depopulates insensibly and by Degrees; and though this is every Day experienced, yet Men are so enslaved by Custom and a long Habit,
that no Admonition will avail: so true is that Saying, That he that goes to the Tavern at first for the Love of the Company, will at last go thither for the Love of Liquor: and therefore 'twas excellent Advice the ingenious
Dr. Baynard gave his Godson.

Pafs by a Tavern-Door, my Son,
 This facred Truth write on thy Heart;
 'Tis eafier, Company to fhun,
 Than at a Pint it is to part.

For one Pint draws another in,
 And that Pint lights a Pipe;
 And thus in th' Morn they tap the Day,
 And drink it out e'er Night:

Not dreaming of a fudden Bounce,
 From Vinous Sulphurs ftor'd within;
 Which blows a Drunkard up at once,
 When the Fire takes Life's Magazin.

An Apoplexy kills as fure
 As Cannon Ball, and oft as foon;
 And will no more yield to a Cure,
 Than murd'ring Chain-shot from a Gun.

Why fhould Men dread a Cannon Bore,
 Yet boldly 'proach a Pottle Pot?
 That may fall fhort, fhoot wide, or o'er,
 But Drinking is the furer Shot.

How many Fools about this Town,
 Do quaff and laugh away their Time?
 And nightly knock each other down,
 With Claret Clubs, of No. GRAPE Wine!
 Until

Until a Dart from Bacchus' Quiver,
As Solomon describeth right,
Does shoot his Tartar thro' the Liver,
Then (Bonus Noscius) S O T good Night.

Good Wine will kill as well as bad,
When drank beyond (our Nature's) Bounds;
Then Wine gives Life a mortal Stab,
And leaves her weltring in her Wounds.

Wounds! that no Phylick Art can beal,
And very rarely that they feel
The Stroke, the Moment it does kill.

Many a Soul with great Difficulty lugs
on a weak and worn-out Carkass to its daily Rendezvous, who perhaps for many Years has been nothing else but the Vintner's Conveniencer to carry his Liquors between the Hoghead and the Piss-Pot.

But when alas! Men come to die
Of Dropfy, Jaundice, Stone and Gout,
When the black Reckoning draws nigh,
And Life (before the Bottle)'s out:

When (low drawn) Time's upon the Tilt,
 Few Sands and Minutes left to run;
 And all our (past gone) Tears are spilt,
 And the great Work is left undone.

When restless Conscience knocks within,
 And in Despair begins to bawl,
Death, like a Drawer, then steps in,
 And asketh, Gentlemen! d'ye call?

I wish that Men would timely think
 On this great Truth in their full Bowls,
 Both I and Will of Ludgate-Hill,
 And all our Friends round Paul's.

When a Man's Distempers stare him in the Face, and he is summon'd to lay down his Dust, he, alas! then sees the Folly of his Ways, and what a miserable Purchase he has made with his misspent Time, Health and Money; and like a Malefactor at the Gallows, makes same short Speech of Warning to his Companions, who give him the Hearing, and perhaps are drunk with his own Claret at his Funeral.

But, alas! the Destruction of himself is the least Part of the Tragedy, the Mischief is struck

struck deeper, and entails hereditary Diseases on his innocent Posterity, to the eternal Infamy of his Name and Family; when the poor Off-spring of his wretched Carcass inherits nothing but the Schedule of his Distempers, and dwindles away a miserable Life, in Pills, Plaisters, and Potions. I wish that Men may think of this, and prize and preserve a good Constitution and Stock of Health before it be too late.

I cannot better close this Epistle, than as the same Author observes the old Romans to have done, to their Friends.

Cura ut Valeas : For Health once gone,
All Comforts perish with it, and are none;
Riches, and Honour, Musick, Wine, and Wit,
Wax flat and tasteless with the Loss of it.

Could Youth but see with gouty old Mens
Eyes,
One Stretch upon their Back would make 'em
wise;
And Drunkenness (the damn'd first Cause) despise.

But such is giddy Youth's unhappy Fate,
When crippl'd and nail'd down, are wise too late.

Unhappy Man! that drinks his own undoing,
 As tho' his Business were, to pledge his Ruin.
 And that brave Texture his sound Parents knit,
 With Pipe and Pot he does unravel it.
 As if the Gods in Anger gave him Wealth,
 To sacrifice to Bacchus, Youth and Health.
Health of all earthly Blessings 'tis the best,
 Which most is valu'd when 'tis least possess'd.

AN
TO A
RULE of HEALTH.

The Definition.

HEALTH is a free, easy, and perfect Enjoyment of all the Faculties of Mind and Body to due Performance of the Animal Functions, without any Impediment, Pain or Molestation.

Which is thus to be attain'd.

IF twice Man's Age you would fulfil,
Let Reason guide you, not your Will:

Let

Let all the Passions of the Soul

Be subject unto her Controul;

She checks all Rashness, and gives time

To think, and re-think each Design:

Those that do thus, before they act,

'Tis rarely seen, repent the Fact:

This makes an easy, quiet Mind,

(The greatest Blessing of Mankind;)

And he that in this Bliss do's share,

Enjoys a Ray of Heaven here.

Fly all Excess, and first take Care

Of Wine and Women to beware.

Sport, dally, and tattle with 'em rarely,

And marry not a Wife too early;

Stay

Stay till you're grown, and Joints are knit,
 And you have Money got and Wit:
 For he that weds before he's wife,
 Is shackled by a Fool's Advice:
 Alas! then he may see his Fate,
 And feel it too, when 'tis too late:

In single Life live pure and chaste,
 Left from your Face your NOSE you cast.
 And is it not a great Disgrace,
 To lose the Boltspirit of your Face?
 Tho' Tears and Pray'rs may atone for th' Sin,
 Yet Howlings brings no NOSE again:
 So never touch forbidden Fruit,
 But think on NOSE, when tempted to't.

Till

Till Hunger pinches, never eat,
 And then, on plain, not spiced Meat.
 Desist before you eat your fill,
 Drink to dilute, but not to swill,
 So no Ructations you will feel.

Let Supper little be and light;
 But none, makes always the best Night;
 It gives sweet Sleep without a Dream,
 Leaves Morning's Mouth sweet, moist, and clean.

A little Breakfast you may eat,
 But not so as to satiate:
 But Dinner then, you must postpone,
 Till farther in the Afternoon;

For

For never load fresh Food upon
Your Stomach, till the former's gone;
For whatsoe'er is swallow'd thus,
Turns putrid and cadaverous:
And taking more than Nature needs,
Of most Distempers are the Seeds.

Accustom early in your Youth
To lay Embargo on your Mouth;
And let no Rarities invite,
To pall and glut your Appetite:
But check it always, and give o'er
With a Desire of eating more.
For where one dies by Inanition,
A thousand perish by Repletion.

To miss a Meal, sometimes is good,
 It ventilates, and cools the Blood,
 Gives Nature time to clean her Streets
 From Filth and Crudities of Meats.
 For too much Meat, the Bowels furr,
 And Fasting's Nature's Scavenger.

When as your Stomach nauseates,
 And kecks at Smell or Sight of Meats :
 By Vomit fetch away the Load
 Of Phlegm and undigested Food,
 And do it soon, before it dwells
 So as to tinge its Tunicles ;
 And breed sow'r Ferment, which begets
 Unfavoury Belches, and sick Fits,

And

And Steams, which taint the Mouth and Gums,
With foetid Smells, like ulcer'd Lungs :

And after Vomits, always use

Emollients soft, to cool and smooth ;

For Reaching makes the Stomach sore,

Which Lenitives will best restore.

Bleed only, when you find the Blood

Abound, or stagnate, then 'tis good ;

Which you may very eas'ly guess,

By heavy, stiff Unwieldiness.

Short Breath, high Pulse, & cætera,

Then quickly take some Blood away :

But more especially in Stitches,

Pleuritic Pains, and pungent Twitches ;

Then out of Hand without Delay

Take a good Quantity away.

For Purging I shall give no Rule,

But after Glutt'ny and cramming full,

'Tis good to empty, and to cool;

Tho' forc'd Evacuations are,

Such as we ought to use with Care,

Since 'tis not known, what we can spare:

* For Physick drives off with the Blood,

Some Parts of the substantial Good,

And if you'd keep the Balance even,

Dame Nature must be led, not driven;

* Neque impune posse administrari, cum omnia præter naturam sint, ob idque naturales facultates infestent; nec possint adeo morbosas causas rescindere, quin una illis, aliquid etiam benignæ substantiæ raptant. Galen lib. de sectis prope finem.

By Methods mild, and by Degrees,
 We should relieve her Grievances:
 As Fasting, Exercise, and Time,
 And Water heals the Wounds of Wine.
 But where the Fever's peracute,
 It won't admit of long Dispute;
 When Life's chief Fortress is attack'd,
 Quickly consult, and quickly act:
 For many a Life hath slip't away,
 By careless trifling, and delay.
 So when the Case is very urging,
 Spare neither vomiting, nor purging;
 Provided that your Judgment's tight;
 And take the Indication right;
 Ev'n then be not the only Agent,
 Left a dead Corps shou'd prove your Patient;
But

But call in Doctors of more Skill,
 Who may you cure, or help you kill,
 Then let it happen as it will,
 You can't be found Felo de se,
 If slain in learned Company.

When struck in Years, strong Drink forbear,
 Especially of Wine beware;
 Old Men of Moisture want Supplies,
 And Wine of all Sorts, heats and dries,
 Twitches and Cramps, their Tartars give,
 Hence they step short, and straddle stiff;
 For vinous Spirits prey upon
 Nutricious Juice, and vital Balm;
 This makes 'em tabid, lean, and thin,
 With loose and flabby, wrinkled Skin,
W ate

Water and Whey, of Drinks are first,
 They cool, dilute, and quench the Thirst;
 And next to those is good small Beer,
 Not sow'r, but smart, and brisk, and clear.
 Not that in general I condemn
 A Glass of gen'rous now and then;
 When you are faint, your Spirits low,
 Your String relax'd, 'twill bend your Bow,
 Brace your Drum Head, and make you tight,
 Wind up your Watch, and set you right:
 But then again the too much Use
 Of all strong Liquors is th' Abuse;
 'Tis Liquid makes the Solids loose,
 The Texture and whole Frame destroys,
 But Health lies in the Equipoise.

The greatest part o'th' World's content
 With Adam's Ale, pure Element;
 And who so strong, and does more Work,
 Than doth the Water drinking Turk?
 And when the Stomach's out of order,
 No Cordial, like a Glas of Water;
 This, this has baffled all the Slops
 Of Ladies Closets, and the Shops.

As Water's best, so 'twas the first
 Of Liquors, made to quench the Thirst
 Of Men, of Beasts, of Plants, and Trees;
 From whence they all have their Encrease:
 Its Uses are too manifold,
 And marv'lous great e'er to be told;

Its

Its Particles constituent,
 Are too minute an Element.
 Its Make and Texture, Crasis, Grain,
 Are too stupendiously fine
 For Virtuoso's to descry,
 Tho' Glasses come t'assist their Eye.
 Cease! then, vain Search! let that alone,
 Hid, with all Essences unknown;
 But be content that the Creator,
 Has blest the World with so much Water.
 It works itself (as being thin)
 Int' all the Pores and Parts within;
 Helps all Secretions in their Uses,
 And sweetens sharp and sowre Juices;
 Tempers hot Bile, thins viscid Phlegm,
 And moderates in each Extreme;

Damps the fierce Ætus of the Blood,
 Abates the Fevers boiling Flood;
 Dilutes the Salts, melts off their Points,
 And acrid Particles disjoints;
 And is the only Liquor that
 Never grows eager, sharp or flat :
 Give it but Motion, Room, and Air,
 Its Purity will ne'er impair :
 Experience daily shews it true,
 That Water only this can do.
 All other Liquors made by Art,
 Grow rancid, vapid, fowre, and tart.

Chuse Water that is cool, and thin,
 Such as feels smooth, and soft to th' Skin,
 Looks clear, and bright, and chrystalline:

The

The lightest Water is the best,
 That is, without or Smell, or Taste :
 Which standing long, yields few Contents
 Of Scum, or Clouds, or Sediments ;
 Such as will lather cold with Soap,
 Tho' ne'er was fainted by the Pope,
 (As Bridget, Anne, and Winifred,)
 For 'tis the Water does the Feat,
 The Saint's the Varnish, and the Cheat ;
 And he that has a Spring like this,
 Has with good Air a double Bliss.

Never give way to Sloth and Ease,
 For Laz'ness is a great Disease ;
 And when it has Possession got,
 It makes the Man a stupid Sot :

When Sleep does first desert you, rise ;
 Next, wash the Gum from off your Eyes ;
 Cold Water pure will clear the Sight,
 Comfort the Eyes, and keep them bright,
 Indulge not Drowfiness, unless
 It does proceed from Weariness.
 'Thout some Fatigue, there's no sound Sleep,
 'Tis eating without Appetite ;
 For those that start in Sleep, or shake,
 Find small Refreshment when they wake :
 And when you rise, approach not near
 A Fire, except the Cold's severe ;
 And then, at distance take the Heat,
 Because it does inhabit ;
 And Sloth, and Sluggishness induce,
 And spoil your natural Rest by Use.

This

This Custom, Students must avoid,
 For Memory is by Heat annoy'd,
 And by hard Drinking, quite destroy'd.
 For Reminiscence is strongest where
 The Head's serene, and cool and clear;
 This Truth is seen in Regions cold,
 There what they read they always hold,
 But 'tis the Nature of a Wit,
 Soon to invent, soon to forget;
 For from the Brain that's hot and dry,
 The slight Impressions quickly fly:
 Whereas in moist and phlegmy Brains,
 The Stamp's struck deep, and long remains.
 Tho' 'tis allow'd, there are some few
 That have good Wits, and Mem'ry too.

Rise early with the Summer's Sun,
 Especially when you are young;
 For he that early walks the Fields,
 Takes all the Sweets that Flora yields;
 Just as the Sun unlocks the Blooms
 Of all their fragrant, rich Perfumes;
 Besides, with Morning Air he's treated,
 Not by the Sun-Beams over-heated;
 Which cools the Lungs, and fans the Blood,
 And makes the Spirits brisk and good;
 After a bad Good-fellow-Hood
 Had left their springy Parts uncurl'd,
 Like a loose Sail that is unfurl'd,
 Those Air and Action buckle up,
 When ruffled by a Midnight's Cup.

After

After an idle drunken Bout,
 Walk and take Air, ne'er sleep it out ;
 By which you will avoid the Harms
 Of Head-ach, and sick Stomach Qualms :
 For sleeping with a Load of Wine,
 Does all its Fumes within confine ;
 Which are of dang'rous Consequence,
 For Apoplexies spring from hence.
 * Palsies, and Tremors, and the rest,
 Which mostly Drunkards do infest,
 From Ferments in the Body pent,
 Which early rowzing may prevent ;
 For Gouts, and Stone, and such Diseases,
 Dwell most where Luxury and Ease is :

* Dr. Lower de motu cordis.

Such a Tormenter never rages
 'Mong Whey-Drinkers in poor Cottages,
 Who live in Health till mighty Ages;
 And to the Grave at a hundred Years
 Carry their Mem'ry, Eyes, and Ears.
 Who then in Ale, or worse brew'd Wine,
 Wou'd drown his Health, and so much Time?
 For whilst Men tipple, prate, and lie
 Life on smooth Skeets slides swiftly by.

In walking let your Cloaths be thin,
 But not too tight, or strait to th' Skin,
 That cool fresh Air may close the Pores :
 This oftentimes that Health restores,
 Which too much Warmth turn'd out of Doors:

For loss of Strength declares what Hurt

Those get that wear a Flannel Shirt:

For thro' a constant Dilatation,

The Spirits spend by Perspiration.

In Bed lie warm, but not too hot,

Nor yet too soft, for that's a Fault;

Soft Feathers have Attraction such,

As draws the natural Heat too much,

The Flesh makes flabby, loose and weak,

The Count'nance dead, and pale, and bleak.

Of Heats and Colds take special Care,

Windows, and Doors, that let in Air;

A Crack, or Crevice, in the Wall,

Hurts more than doth an open Hall:

And safer 'tis to stand i'th' Street,
 Than where two Doors or Entries meet.

Walk to be warm, but not to sweat,
 Or by Degrees take down your Heat ;
 Drink not until you'r very cool,
 And gently move to get a Stool.
 Yet sometimes let your Feet be wet,
 But in your wet Shoes never sit ;
 For while you're running in the Dirt,
 The Action keeps you from the Hurt :
 And often wash your Skin all o'er,
 It gives a Spring to every Pore ;
 Returns the Heat upon the Blood,
 Which makes all bad Digestions good.

Lodge not fine Youth with aged Bones,
 Nor much converse with Pains, and Groans;
 For Bodies, that are old, and dry'd,
 From juicy Youth will be supply'd;
 These suck their Spirits, make 'em pale,
 So vital Vigour needs must fail;
 For th' Aged, thro' the Young one's Pores,
 His own decrepid Limbs restores:
 For what by Contact, what by Sweats,
 What the Youth loses, t'other gets:
 This makes 'em pallid, thin and weak,
 As if Hag-ridden in their Sleep.
 And on the other Hand, it's naught
 To lie with one that's over fat;
 Such sweat and over-heat the Child,
 By which a good cool Habit's spoil'd;

For in a mod'rate Temperature,
 The Welfare of the Child's secure.
 In short, observe, the tender Young
 Shou'd be well nurs'd, but laid alone.

But above all, take special Care
 How Children you affright and scare,
 In telling Stories of Things seen,
Sprite, Damon, and Hobgoblin;
 Hence they'll contract such Cowardice,
 As ne'er will leave them all their Lives,
 And then th' Idea's of their Fears
 Continued unto riper Years,
 Can by no Reason be suppress'd,
 But of it they'll be so possess'd,

They'll

They'll sweat, and quake, and start and stare,
And meet the Devil ev'ry where.

Terrors have changed some Men grey,

Took Limbs, and Speech, and Sense away;

Have topsy-turvy'd Brains in Skulls,

Turn'd some Men mad, and some Men Fools:

Have made a Soul skip like a Sprite,

And leave the Body bolt upright :

Stark staring ghastly, dead, and stiff,

Like Lot's sad monumental Wife.

Anger avoid, and also Grief,

They both are Enemies to Life,

And fatal often in Extremes,

To which side e'er the Passion leans.

In both let Reason mitigate,
 She will the Fury soon abate,
 If she's consulted not too late.
 For I have seen fierce Anger checkt,
 By seeming Deafness, and Neglect;
 Take off the Fuel, th' Fire will die,
 Silence alone will put it by,
 If not blown up; by a Reply:
 Let it blow pier, if you can bear,
 In at one, out at t'other Ear;
Storms hurt not in a Thoroughfare.

Late Watching does much Injury
 To Nature's whole Oeconomy;
 Impedes, or wholly doth defeat
 The making of her Work complete;

For

For all Secretions are made best
 I'th' quiet State of Sleep and Rest;
 When all the Faculties of th' Mind
 Are to their (soporal) Cells confin'd;
 Then all the vital Functions are
 ('Cause not disturb'd by mental Care)
 Each to his Office to repair,
 And mend the Breaches, and Decays,
 Made by Disorder any ways
 In Life's vast Labyrinth and Maze;
 Which thro' unknown Meanders run,
 And circulates to where't begun,
 And restless in its Course, keeps on.

For th' Heart clacks on, and is a Mill,
 That's independant of the Will,

And

And like an Engine squirts the Blood,
 Forcing up Hill the purple Flood;
 A constant Fountain that displays
 Its Rivulets ten thousand ways;
 Mov'd by a secret Power unknown,
 And yet that Power is not its own:
 Restless from the first Stroke it gives,
 To the last Moment that it lives;
 Its Office is to mesh and beat,
 And make the Chyle consimulate
 With balmy Blood and nitrous Air,
 (All have i'th' Work their proper Share)
 Which Inspiration does prepare.
 That Air again the Lungs explode,
 When robbed of its nitrous Load;

This

This grinds Life's Grift, yet takes small Toll
 For carrying of it thro' the Whole,
 And lodging at each Office Door,
 Sufficient for their daily Store.
 And here I'd ask, what human Tongue
 Can praise enough that wond'rous One,
 That made this great Automaton?
 Here let the prostrate World adore
 His infinite Goodness, Wisdom, Power.

Of Exercifes, Swimming's best,
 Strengthens the Muscles of the Chest,
 And all their fleshy Parts confirms,
 Extends, and stretches Legs and Arms;
 And with a nimble retro-Spring,
 Contracts, and brings them back again.

As 'tis the best, so 'tis the Sum

Of Exercises all in one :

And of all Motions most complete,

Because 'tis vi'lent without Heat.

And next to Swimming, Riding's good,

It shakes the Bowels, stirs the Blood,

And gives a Motion to a Stool,

But bad to ride with Belly full ;

For shaking does precipitate,

E'er you've digested half your Meat ;

Besides, your Guts, if fat, it squ elches

And causes Fumes, and sowre Belches :

'Tis also in hard Livers naught,

Or when oppress'd with Wind and Thought,

It

It stirs up Flatus Hypochon :

If so, desist from riding on :

For't makes it fly into the Head,

Where Dizziness, and Fumes are bred ;

Then Life's in Danger if you totter,

Be your Horse Pacer, or a Trotter :

So let the Rider take a Care,

Lest from a stumbling Horse or Mare,

He don't take Earth in taking Air.

But the true Benefit in riding,

Is much and long i'th' Air abiding ;

Fasting and always jogging on,

And drinking nothing that is strong ;

But guzzling on a Journey's wrong :

And then perhaps, you'll gain your Point,

If your Horse keeps your Neck in Joint.

In dry consumptive Coughs beware,
 They always grow much worse in Air ;
 For Places high, and Air serene,
 Are for thin Bodies found too keen :
 For all the Air, on Hights, and Hills,
 'Cause robb'd of watry Particles,
 Holds Nitre naked, and not sheath'd,
 And so are naught, for all short breath'd :
 As well as Airs too thick with Smoaks,
 One pricks and tickles, t'other choaks :
 But where it's clear, and not too high,
 With Mixture due of moist and dry,
 'Tis there the Lungs have Liberty
 To play their Fan most pleasantly.

The

The Air is best on rising Hills,
 Also near grav'ly running Rills;
 For where the Soil is hard and dry,
 The Air is good, whether low or high,
 The watry Steams will take off Heats,
 And much abate nocturnal Sweats.
 In Holland, where 'tis all low Ground,
 Habitual Coughs are rarely found;
 But when Catarrhs and Rheums infest,
 Warm and dry Airs are surely best.
 * For if Consumptions cur'd can be,
 (Which is a mighty Rarity)

Three

* Uterius phthisis perfecta rarissimè potest curari : vita interim diutissimè potest conservari, per hæc tria,

1. Per legitimum usum lactis.
2. Per usum vulnerariorum, &c.

3. Per

Three Things in chief you need prepare,

Milk, Traumaties, and Change of Air.

And if with these, Cold Baths you get,

To temper down the hectic Heat,

He may go bare-foot, as a Goose

Who lives in hope of dead Mens Shoes.

Tho' riding is extremely good,

Yet, Health lies more in Choice of Food;

3. Per mutationem Aëris.

Denique quoad legitimum usum lactis.

In omni atrophîâ, tabe & phthisi commodissimè observatur, quod lactis usus, seu legitimus potus, in quibusdam casibus, multum possit : sed parum proderit, quoties atrophia est à colluvie cujusdam visceris, aut ubi atrophia est ex vitio stomachi, nisi hic prius sit correctus. Mich. Ettmullerus de Nutritione partium lesâ, pag. 282.

A gen'ral Rule we may go by,

Is eating such things 'pecially,

As are least apt to putrefy.

New Milk and Rice, Bread Corn, and Roots,

Fresh Sallets, and fresh gather'd Fruits,

Sweet Butter, Oil, and well made Cheese;

For those who mostly feed on these,

Live long, and gently wear away,

Perceiving not their own Decay,

To th' utmost Point o'th' fatal Day.

Then without Pain, like Lamps expire,

With the last Spark of vital Fire.

For Life's a Lamp, its Oil well spent,

Leaves when't goes out a fragrant Scent :

Thrice happy he, whose virtuous Name,
Is Incense, and perfumed Flame,
On th' Altar of immortal Fame.

So, Reader, if thou art so wise
To put in Practice this Advice;
The World shall wonder to behold
Thou look'st so young, and art so old.

*The Doctor's Decade;
Or the Ten Utensils of his Trade.*

*For in Ten Words, the whole Art is compris'd;
For some of the Ten are always advis'd.*

V. Z.

*Piss, Spew, and Spit,
Perspiration and Sweat;
Purge, Bleed, and Blister,
Issues and Clyster.*

THESE few Evacuations,
Cure all the Doctor's Patients,

If rightly apply'd

By a wise Physick Guide :

For an Error in these,
 Is worse than Disease;
 So can't be too wary,
 Where Cases do vary;
 For a Dose of't too much,
 Turns PUG o'er the Perch.
 What more they advance,
 Is all done by chance;
 Even Steel and the Bark,
 Do tilt in the Dark:
 Tho' Opium, alas!
 May put by a Pass,
 And lull a Disease
 By a seeming false Peace;
 Yet these Physick Allies
 Use such Fallacies,
 For 3 And

And fail us so common,
 We can't depend on 'em;
 So as to a Cure,
 There's none can be sure.
 Most other Specificks
 Have no visible Effects,
 But the getting of Fees,
 For a Promise of Ease;
 (Much like the South S—)
 Tho' our Glasses of late
 Has furnish'd the Pate
 With Philosophical Prate;
 As to read learned Lectures
 On a T—and its Textures;
 And can see in the Sp—m
 Generations to come:

Like Tad-poles a swimming
 To the Land of the Living.
 Yet for all this fine Show,
 No more do we know,
 Than did old Quid pro Quo;
 That famous Compounder,
 And first Physick Founder.
 For then all their Blunders
 Were esteem'd as Wonders,
 And admired as much
 As some do H—b C—b
 For Physick then took,
 Much more by the Look,
 Than by the Success,
 Which is the best Test.

To look big, grave, and dull,

And talk half like a Fool,

Denotes a wise Skull.

To be deaf, and half-blind,

Were Perfections of Mind;

For all such Defects,

Were to Folly as Checks:

For few were thought wise,

That saw with both Eyes.

Yet none of these Blinkers

Were accounted Free-Thinkers,

As is seen by the Treacle

Where Health lay in Pickle:

That ancient Farrago,

Exploded long ago.

Yet

Yet 'tis such a Med'cine,
 Once had the Pope's Blessing;
 And so is Catholick,
 Tho' not Apostolick;
 For't has not a Missibn
 From Luke the Pyfician.
 But why do we them blame,
 When we play the same Game?
 And make up strange Mixtures,
 Of different Textures,
 Which fret and ferment,
 Till their Fury is spent,
 And in our Guts jar,
 And there raise a War,
 From a Heterogen Med'cine,
 The Strife is intestine.

But

But where the Ingredients
 Are mix'd from Experience,
 By their Homogeniety,
 They'll never disquiet ye;
 For ill Compounds are owing
 To our Simples not knowing;
 For their Virtues unless
 The Plants will confess,
 We must all acquiesce,
 And Practise by Guess.
 Till the College reveals
 What their Prudence conceals;
 For the Arcanas of Art,
 To none they'll impart;
 Those sacred Archives,
 Which enrol all our Lives,

Are

Are lodg'd on high Shelves,
 Out o'th' Reach of themselves;
 For when they fall sick,
 What they gave upon Tick,
 The Doctors ne'er take,
 For fear of Mistake,
 But always mistrust,
 What they believed at first,
 Whilst the practising Youth
Swallows all for a Truth.
 For whatever they read,
 They believe as their Creed,
 But will find when they try,
 That Authors will lye,
 For in Physick there's Legend,
 As well as Religion;

But

But the older they grow,
 The less they will know;
 For in being oft out,
 It creates in 'em Doubt :
 So themselves they'll ne'er kill,
 By Potion or Pill ;
 No Powders nor Bolus,
 Nor Issues o'th' Shoulders,
 Nor encered in Blisters ;
 Those Shrouds of the * Sisters
 By the Devil contriv'd
 To flay Men alive,
 As if the Sick didn't feel,
 When they're skin'd like an Fel.

* The three Ladies of Destiny ; Clotho, Lachesis and Atropos.

Then a Plaister apply'd
 To the Remains of the Hide,
 Which tears of the rest,
 Next time it is dress'd;
 By some little Hell-Cub,
 Or Spawn of old Belz'ub;
 Or Mellilot his Master,
 With a whole Sheet of Plaister,
 To shrowd him compleat,
 From the Head to the Feet,
 Sent by his Physician,
 To manage th' Inquisition;
 For one half that dies
 Are spur-gall'd by his Flies,
 And flay'd out of their Lives.

Then

But

But the Devil a Doctor,
 Will flay his own Back fore ;
 What his Patients endure,
 He'll avoid to be sure :
 Their Groans and their Aking,
 Does fright him from taking ;
 Nor shall any Slops
 But Wine, wet his Chops :
 So all Med'cines defies,
 As he does Spanish Flies,
 From experienc'd Opinion,
 There's little Help in 'em.
 But as Death does draw near,
 Their Art is their Fear ;
 Trusting more to Small-Beer,

A Haſte and freſh Air,

Than to Phyſick and Prayer,

From whence I ſuggeſt,

They're too wiſe for the reſt.
